[Maximo Pacheco] gave me the attached. He said he was given it by a man whose name he does not know, but who contacted him several years ago about Weilsfeider. [Pacheco] in turn, had put him in contact with U.S. Embassy officials. According to [Pacheco] our records should indicate who this source is. The records may also indicate whether the source is credible.

I would appreciate knowing if there is a record of this contact, and if the information in the attached is helpful.

Name: Boris Weisfeiler

Age: Forty to Forty-five years old

Height: About 1 meter 80 centimeters

Date: January 4, 1985

Time: 4:15 PM

Passport: US, Pennsylvania Driver's License

Elements: Camping equipment, inflammable raft, sleeping bag, compass, Visa card, parkas, caps, mountain knife, lantern, camera, knapsack, diverse undergarments, $1,200 cash.

The arrest took place near Andarivel, after a villager who lived in a house and had the surname Sandoval (he had instruction to report any strangers in the area) told us. This individual was allowed to pass by personnel of the Carabineros from the Reten El Roble, who received X amount of U.S. dollars. This person was in search of a Mengele who visited the Germans until September 1988. The Professor? named Smith and the major Neckerman (who was in charge of security in the interior perimeter) received the foreigner who was treated like a Jewish dog.

Map:

There is hand drawn map with the statement: the principal key of all of this are a sergeant and two corporals who served that day in the Reten el Roble.
